

Expiration of the Short Selling Ban

May 18
2020

KARATZAS
& PARTNERS

Expiration of the Short Selling Ban

The HCMC has issued today, May 18, 2020 a press release according to which the short selling ban imposed until May 18, 2020, 24.00.00 (CET), will not be further extended, because the reasons for which the specific measure was initially imposed no longer apply.

According to the same press release, the HCMC is in constant contact with the competent authorities of other EU Member States and the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA), is closely monitoring the developments in the financial markets and is ready to take appropriate decisions and measures to ensure the smooth operation of the Greek market and investor protection.